

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Livestock and Dairy Development Board, (LDDDB) (www.lddb.org.pk) is a company established under section 42 of the Companies Ordinance, 1984, supported by Ministry of Livestock & Dairy Development. The mission is to promote livestock & poultry development in the country for economic growth and poverty reduction. Its head-office is located in Islamabad with the provincial offices in Lahore, Peshawar, Quetta, Hyderabad, Gilgit and Mirpur (AJK). LDDDB is meant to promote and facilitate development of dairy, meat, poultry and allied industry and considered as engine of rural and economic growth in Pakistan.

Function/Responsibilities of CEO

- Plan, organize and execute/coordinate livestock business development programs.
- Coordinate with Federal and Provincial Livestock Departments and Dairy Authorities, or other related agencies and stakeholders.
- Identify future projects and assist in monitoring and evaluation of livestock related projects.
- Be the resource person to the Project Director (Agribusiness Development & Diversification Project) on livestock related agribusiness development and promotion activities including government policies/legal framework etc.

The Candidate:

- The candidate must possess Masters degree, preference will be given who has degree in Agriculture Economics/Livestock Economics.
- Should have minimum 15 years of professional leadership experience in Project Management in Livestock oriented agribusiness development projects, preferably in developing countries with special reference to South Asia.
- Should have experience in Financial and Public Administration matters.
- Familiarization and knowledge of Government Rules & Procedures, Estacode etc.
- Minimum 10-15 years experience in Management and Monitoring of Project in any sector.
- Exposure to working with donor agencies.
- Linkages and experience of coordination with provincial governments and community organizations.

The company offers a congenial professional environment, an attractive salary and other benefits, including company maintained car for official use.

Aspirants meeting the above requirements may send their applications along with a detailed CV and a recent passport size photograph within 15 days of the advertisement. The applications should be mailed to The Chairman, LDDDB, 76-W, Umer Plaza, 1st Floor, Jinnah Avenue, Blue Area, Islamabad.

Livestock and Dairy Development Board (LDDDB) is an equal opportunity employer. Pakistanis, who are working abroad, are encouraged to apply. All communication will be treated in strict confidence.

NB: Only short-listed candidates will be contacted for interview.

Livestock & Dairy Development Board (LDDDB)

(Supported by Ministry of Livestock & Dairy Development)

76-W, Umer Plaza, 1st Floor, Jinnah Avenue, Blue Area, Islamabad

